8th Grade Trip to Washington D.C.

Over spring break, twelve 8th graders took a trip to our nation's capitol. The group enjoyed visits to many historic landmarks, including the Capitol Building, the Lincoln Memorial, Arlington National Cemetery, and the Smithsonian Museum. Students were also treated to a visit to Florida Congresswoman Kathy Castor's office on Capitol Hill. The trip was supervised by Ms. Bowman, Mr. Ibanez, and Mrs. Winstanley. Thanks to the hard work of Mr. Ibanez – who coordinated the entire trip – and the generosity of sponsors like Bush Ross and Associates and the Academy Prep faculty and staff, this new tradition was made possible. What an amazing opportunity for our Academy Prep STARS!
